

International Youth Math Challenge

Participation Certificate

presented to

Kowsalya

India

for a successful participation in the qualification round of 2021. The International Youth Math Challenge is an independent international mathematics competition for high school and university students with the aim to encourage young students to engage in a variety of mathematical areas.

Fabian Schneider, International Coordinator

Rami Aly, Public Relations Manager